On June 1, there will be the first “Chasing Pavement Vintage Automotive Festival” in Matthews, Virginia. The funds raised from this car show will benefit local law enforcement, fire departments and rescue/ambulance squads. A national Television Show will also be onsite filming...so you may see yourself on TV in September! The event will wrap up with a wonderful concert by “Blessid Union of Souls”.

Deltaville in 1930

Take a look back in time as you ride down what is now General Puller Hwy. (Rt.33) through Deltaville in 1930. See if you can identify what is now Taylor's Restaurant. Some of the older farm homes are no longer here, but Lover's Lane (past what is now the Dvl Library) is truly a farmer's lane! Enjoy this great video which was posted on Youtube.

Annual Boaters' Party

May 25, 2013 • 6:30 to 10 p.m.
DYC Clubhouse/ Pool Area

Time for a party! All DYC boaters are welcomed! Join us on Saturday, May 25, 6:30 to 10 pm, for the 2013 DYC Boaters' Party. Each year on Memorial Day weekend we gather together to eat good food, dance to great music and kick off the Chesapeake Bay boating season. Bring a dish of something to share (appetizer, veggies, meat casserole, etc.) DYC will provide sodas, waters and dessert along with great live music by 'The Delvers' of Newport News...same group of musicians who had us all 'groovin' last year! All the chairs will be available around the pool, but you may want to bring a chair, just incase we need extras! You can BYOB of additional beverage if you wish. The DYC Annual Boaters' Party is a family event, so kids and grandkids are welcomed. This party is a great chance to meet Boatel, Slip, Service, Yacht Sales and Boatyard friends who also love boating! The pool will be open and ready for brave swimmers. Contact Onna Grimm to register the number attending with your group for the Boaters' Party 804-776-9898 or onna@dycboat.com.

Deltaville Dealer Days 6th Annual Success Story

Deltaville Dealer Days Boatshow - Saturday & Sunday, May 4 & 5 were tremendous days in Deltaville, Virginia! Crowds of people visited the four participating new boat dealerships in Deltaville and looked at hundreds of new and used power and sailboats. The Middle Bay Boatshow was also a happening in Deltaville that weekend, so Deltaville was 'buzzing'. Chesapeake Yacht Sales is proud to have been part of the Deltaville Dealer Days Boatshow ever since the event's origination six years ago. It was a fantastic time at Deltaville Yachting Center with lots of boats to look at, live music, 'boaters' punch', great snackies from Café' by the Bay and chilled J & W Seafood's shrimp! Chesapeake Yacht Sales brokers, Carl Hawkins and Cori Williams were extremely busy! Bob Arnett, retiring CYS broker, even helped out showing boats. It was a great chance for Bob to say thanks to the many boaters from 15 years of selling boats at Chesapeake Yacht Sales.

Winners of 2013 Golden Helm Awards

Thanks to the many people who sent DYC wonderful boating pictures for this year's Golden Helm Photo Contest. We know you will congratulate the winners, Mark, Jennifer and Jordan DeBruhl "Legacy" and Barry and Margaret Kennedy "Irish Magic". Both Catalinas...a coincidence??? I think not!

Va. Boating Safety Class Required

Make Sure You Are Onboard for Compliance!

In 2007, the Va. General Assembly enacted a law to establish a boating safety education compliance requirement. The requirement is phased in over several years according to the schedule found on www.dgif.virginia.gov or you can call 804-367-1125 and ask questions of the Dept. of Game & Inland Fisheries.

On March 30th, twenty two boaters completed the required Boating Safety Education course at Deltaville Yachting Center which was offered compliments of Stingray Point Sailing School as a community outreach.

Visiting or Cruising Deltaville, The Boating Capital of the Chesapeake

If you wonder how our precious little town of Deltaville, Va. was named The Boating Capital of the Chesapeake, you need to click here and watch this 2013 video done to invite visitors and cruisers to Deltaville. If you have already discovered this amazing place where boats meet the water, you already know the title is well deserved!

Two years After Tornado Zoar Baptist Sets Steeple

We are happy to see Deltaville fresh and in its rebuilt condition after the April 16, 2011 Tornado which destroyed Zoar Baptist Church, Deltaville Community Association and over 30 homes in Deltaville. Thank you boaters for your kind donations toward rebuilding of the DCA building, pool and tennis courts. And God bless those who continue to donate, as we rebuild our beloved Zoar Baptist Church. We hope to worship inside the new sanctuary sometime in August 2013.

Remember to join the INTERDENOMINATIONAL BEACH WORSHIP SERVICE AT STINGRAY POINT BEGINNING MAY 26 THRU SEPTEMBER 1. Bring a lawn chair or a blanket at watch the dolphins play in the Bay as you worship under the pines. Service begins at 8:30 a.m. If you would like a ride from DYC to the Beach Worship Service contact Onna & Lew Grimm onna@dycboat.com and we will pick you up!

15th Annual Southern Chesapeake Leukemia Cup Regatta July 12-14

LEUKEMIA &

CUP REGATTA

All sizes and shapes of sailors are encouraged to participate in the Annual Southern Chesapeake Leukemia Cup on the weekend of July 12-14. Social events as well as pre-regatta art shows, kayaking, Junior regattas are all part of the fund raising efforts which benefit not only leukemia research, but also patient services in Virginia. Visit the website www.lls.org/va for more details and to participate. Deltaville Yachting Center and Chesapeake Yacht Sales support this wonderful event each year and we hope you will also!

Improvements Around DYC Wi Fi , Benches, Clubhouse & Water Pressure

We have been working around Deltaville Yachting Center to improve your 'home away from home'. If you see some 'dug up dirt', please excuse our mess as we bring you new additions of plumbing and wiring.

You will notice a new Wi-Fi System which should offer improved coverage and connectivity. As always this wireless internet service is FREE to DYC boaters. However, it is now password protected. You will need to contact the DYC office for the login password.

Repairs were made to one of the main water lines at DYC and you should notice better pressure even when many folks are washing boats. DYC Hi-Dri Boatel has added improvements also with recarpeting inside boat racks and stabilizing the boatel area floating docks.

A major drainage culvert was added in the DYC boatyard to allow for better drainage during heavy rains.

The large pine tree near the clubhouse was removed to prevent pine needles on boats and to allow for more sunlight in the clubhouse area. The DYC clubhouse floor was refinished and all trim work on the pool side of the clubhouse was replaced. The DYC pool is scheduled to be opened and will be ready to swim in by mid-May.

You will notice new red benches located around the marina, take a moment ...sit down and relax!

Thanks to all the DYC employees who worked on these projects and who keep things looking tidy!

National Marina Day, June 8

www.DiscoverBoating.com is a national organization of marine related businesses who promote and encourage recreational boating. Each year National Marina Day finds marinas around the U.S. welcoming visitors and thanking boaters who enjoy the water.

Deltaville Yachting Center and Chesapeake Yacht Sales is always 'open for visits' from 'old salts' as well as those folks beginning to explore the possibility of boating! We love boats and want others to realize how much fun and relaxation boating can offer. On June 8th, National Marina Day, all visitors (and regulars!) can stop by the DYC Ship's Store and enjoy a complimentary ice cream treat. ASA certified, Stingray Point Sailing School, which is located at Deltaville Yachting Center will have info available and would love for visitors to drop by and 'check out sailing' as a way to the water.

Stingray Point Sailing School at NYC

Wins ASA Awards

Congratulations, 2012 ASA Outstanding School & Outstanding Instructor!

Bill Cheryl Simpson started Stingray Point Sailing School two years ago, because of their personal love of sailing and the water. Stingray Point Sailing School is an American Sailing Association accredited school and all of its instructors are also ASA accredited.

The school is located at Deltaville Yachting Center with comfortable classroom space and a school sailboat named "Bean Dip".

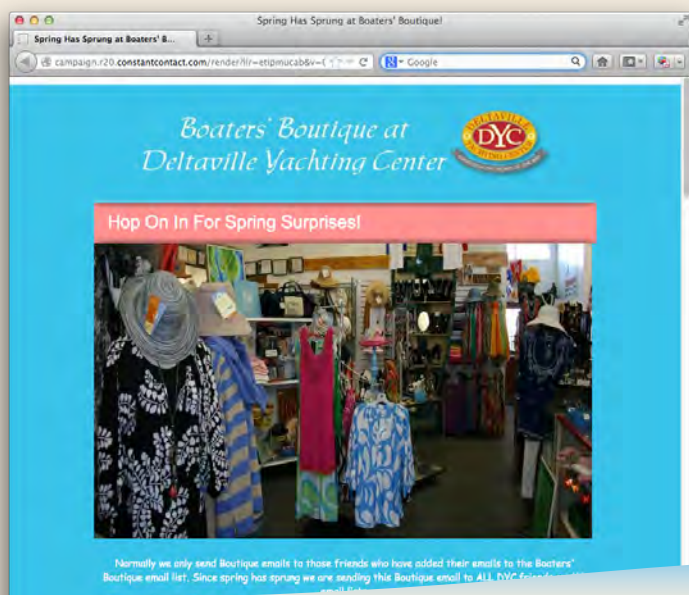

Many boaters have received introductory sailing experience through SPSS in the last years. Other sailors have acquired ASA certifications by taking classes through SPSS. The quality of instruction is evident in the fact that ASA named Bill Simpson a 2012 ASA Outstanding Instructor and Stingray Point Sailing School a 2012 ASA Outstanding School.

For more information visit www.stingraysail.com or contact Bill Simpson 804-909-2655 or bill@stingraysail.com.

Hampton Roads Sunfish Challenge & Dinghy Distance Race

If you have a Sunfish, a sailing dinghy or any smaller sailboat, you would love the Hampton Roads Sunfish Challenge and Dinghy Distance Race! This group of boaters is relaxed and yet 'buttoned up' when it comes to racing their sailboats. They always have a great turn out and families from all over participate. If you are interested, please contact Jonathan Romero romeroarms@cox.net for details of the 2013 HRSC & DDR. The race is usually one Saturday in September followed by a fun cook out party. Chesapeake Yacht Sales and Deltaville Yachting Center is proud to sponsor this fun boating event!

Winter DYC Events Well Attended

Deltaville Yachting Center tries to keep boating 'alive' in the winter months by hosting annual events that bring boaters to the marina. Many boaters need to come to see their boats in the winter...to do a maintenance check... shop in the Boaters' Boutique... or just to 'give the boat a little kiss'! Having 'boaters' events' in the winter just gives you another reason to visit.

February 2nd- DYC Semi-Annual Home From The Sea Wine & Cheese Cruising Party with 42 people in attendance. Thank you Margaret & Barry Kennedy "Irish Magic" for inspiring us to 'daysail' more.

March 2nd- DYC Annual Marine Service Seminar with 45 people in attendance.

Thank you Uflex for bringing the great 'show & tell' truck of Uflex products and to Interlux/Awlgrip for answering so many 'paint' questions.

April 6th – DYC Annual Sail On Sailing Seminar with 55 people in attendance. Thank you Stingray Point Sailing School, Selden Mast & Ullman Sails, VA for all your shared knowledge.

Fishing With B.T.

The fishing is going to be about two weeks later starting this year I think because of lower water temps and the amount of rain we have received this spring. The only positive thing is we will be able to go over our vessels at a more leisurely pace. Be sure to check the fuel filters and replace if needed and make sure the battery is in good shape. The water pump on an outboard engine should be replaced every few years. Electronics shouldn't be overlooked. A little contact spray on connections goes a long way. This checklist should make the boat ready for a shake down cruise.

Let's go fishing boys and girls. Togs should be active when the water temps start to hit 48 to 50 degrees. Clam and crab are top baits. Try the Iron Ore just off Gwynn's Island, The Cell or Wolftrap Light. Spades should be at the Cell and Wolftrap Light by the last week in May depending on water temps. Tiny bits of clam are the best bait. Flounder regulations changed to 16" this year so there should be some flat fish to be caught and kept in the Rapp this year. Try the channel edges at Windmill Pt., Misquito Pt. and the Rappahannock Bridge area. Croaker and Spot fishing should start up in the Rappahannock by the end of May. The larger Croakers are usually caught in early morning and late evening in the shallow water areas. They seem to go deeper during the daytime. The best baits for the Spot and Croaker are bloodworms, peeler crab and squid. Speckled Trout and Puppy Drum also are caught in the shallower water areas and peeler crab and minnows work well.

Dear weatherman,
Please send us some warmer weather and a little less rain.

Thank you,
The boaters and
fishermen at DYC

Hope this gets everybody a little excited and ready for a fresh fish dinner. Hope to see ya'll at the fish cleaning station. Good luck!

"Nervous Wreck"

& Kids Fun Run * Saturday, July 6

The course will take you through Deltaville with a view to the bay and is open to runners and walkers of all ages!

The Kids Fun Run (a ½ mile course) is for those 12 & under. All proceeds from this year's race will be for the beautification of the Deltaville community.

Registration is currently open at www.DVLRace.com. 5K entrance fee is $25 and the Kids Fun Run is $10 till June 30. Walkup registration increases by $5. All participants this year will receive a complimentary t-shirt, race bib and giveaways from our sponsors.

We encourage everyone to come out and be a part of this event whether it is being a participant, a sponsor or a volunteer. Help us continue to make this an annual Deltaville tradition. Everything you need to know can be found at www.DVLRace.com.

'Name The Classic' Winner!

DYC has added a classic truck to the 'family'. Over 40 names were submitted in the 'Name The Classic' contest. Brad Norris, with the name 'Chessie', was chosen as the winner! (Chessie is the mythical sea creature associated with the Chesapeake Bay.)

Carolina Classic Factory Visit

In February, a trip to Edenton, NC just seemed right. Lew and Onna Grimm drove through beautiful coastal farm land to meet Cynthia and Forrest McGee, "Steel Away", Carolina Classic 28, for lunch in Edenton after touring the 100,000 sq. ft Carolina Classic Factory. We were joined for lunch by Carolina Classic factory manager, Keith Privott. Once again we were all super impressed with the robust construction methods of these fantastic 'fishing machines'.

Living Shoreline Update

The Living Shoreline between C & D Dock is growing and filling in nicely. However, after inspection by Shoreline Engineer, Michael Vanlandingham, Virginia Dept. of Conservation & Recreation, recommendations for construction of a rip rap marsh sill were made. Friends of the Rappahannock, Hammertime Marine and Deltaville Yachting Center work cooperatively to install the existing living shoreline. Future plans and permits may involve additional plantings and oyster reef structure rock revetments which would allow for a wider marsh fringe and protection for the shoreline. In the meantime we maintain the shoreline and ask that you only access the beach area at the kayak launching area to protect the wetland grasses.

DYC BOATEL NEWS

Hello everyone. I hope all of you fared the winter well. We've been getting hints of spring in the weather for the last several weeks in spite of winter trying its hardest to stick around. Before we know it, the warm air will move in for good and hopefully continue to bring everyone out to their boats. The activity around the marina has already picked up to a steady pace with so many of you showing up getting yourselves ready for the upcoming season. It's always great to see all the faces showing up at the beginning of every season glowing with eagerness to get out on the water.

The staff here at the marina have been spending the winter months working hard on many different projects to hopefully help make this next year enjoyable for all. The normal maintenance items such as our lifts, storage racks, docks, etc. have been getting the usual treatment. In addition, we have also completed several other projects that will help improve your experience here at the marina. Many of the projects we have worked on were based on several great suggestions we received over the winter from many of our boaters. I encourage all of you to feel free to continue with this practice. Whether it is a simple idea that may help us better serve you or if it's something that may be of concern. Please don't hesitate to let us hear your thoughts.

As spring continues to move in, let's all hope for warmer weather and calm seas. No matter what your activity on the water may be, have fun and please remember to practice safe boating. Let us know as the year progresses if there is anything we can do to help make your time here at DYC more enjoyable. Here's hoping that everyone has a great and beautiful 2013!

Chet Williams
DYC Boatel & Boatyard Manager
