News From Stingray Point ASA Sailing School

Coastal Navigation Courses

Coastal Navigation Course
ASA 105 will be presented:

February 15 - 16, Part I & 22 - 23, Part II

March 22 - 23, Part I & 29 - 30, Part II

This is a certification course for ASA sailors but it is open to all power and sail crews with the certification being optional. There are no prerequisites required. This four day (two weekends) course is $545 per person which includes texts, chart, and exam.

Send us an email at bill@stingraysail.com or call 804 909-2655

Docking Course ASA 118

We are introducing a new hands-on docking course this year. For a lot of sailboat and power boat Captains, docking and casting off can be a daunting experience especially in higher winds and currents. ASA Docking 118 is designed to alleviate these concerns by teaching you how to make the forces acting on your boat work in your favor.

This is a one day on the water course scheduled for:

- Saturday, June 28
- Saturday, August 2

The cost is $335.00 which includes training, text and exam.
Contact us at bill@stingraysail.com or call 804 909-2655

New Website Coming

We are in the process of developing a new website and should have it on line by February 1st. For those who are interested, here is our 2014 Course Schedule.

Email bill@stingraysail.com or call 804 909-2655 for 2014 Prices.

Big Change In Deltaville Festivities

May 24th Seafood Festival Replaces July 4th Heritage Day

Get ready for an exciting event in Deltaville - May 24th Deltaville Seafood Festival.

Deltaville Community Association (DCA) is a volunteer organization which works to improve the community of Deltaville, Virginia. You may know the DCA as the lovely community building, pool, tennis courts and playground property in the center of Deltaville. However, DCA volunteers help coordinate many activities including The Annual Christmas Creek Cruise, The 5K Run, swimming lessons, a local swim team, the lovely holiday decorations on Rt. 33, the Annual Deltaville Calendar, formation of the Deltaville Maritime Museum and in years past, the annual Deltaville Heritage Day near July 4.

Change is always difficult, but often exciting. The Deltaville Community Association has decided to change the annual community activities of Deltaville Heritage Day which has been near July 4th weekend to a new and exciting Deltaville Seafood Festival to be held Memorial Day weekend, May 24. There will be details posted on www.deltavilleva.com as the Seafood Festival committee makes preparations.

Fishing Seminar at DYC

Speakers:

1. 1:00 PM - Keith Privott, Operating Manager, Carolina Classic Boats, Edenton, N.C.

Topic: Carolina Classic's Newest Models & Changes

Anyone who knows Carolina Classic Boats, knows the Privott family. Keith, his brother, Wade and his father, Mac build amazing fishing boats. Chesapeake Yacht Sales is proud to be Virginia's dealer for Carolina Classic Boats. Recently, Carolina Classic moved into a larger manufacturing facility in Edenton, N.C. Keith Privott will share the information about the new modifications to Carolina Classic 25', 28', 32' and 35' models.

2. 1:40 PM - Captain Billy Pipkin, "Liquid Assets II", Heathsville, Va.
Topic: The Most Exciting Fishing on Virginia's Rivers & The Chesapeake Bay

Captain Pipkin runs a charter fishing business and river cruise business in Maryland and Virginia waters. With a long history of winnings in Bluefish and Striped Bass (rockfish) fishing tournaments. Captain Pipkin holds a U.S. Coast Guard Master license. He is a fishing columnist for local newspapers, Chesapeake Angler, Gateway and Northern Neck Guides as well as radio reporter on WIGO 104.9 FM. After attending University of Alabama, Captain Pipkin returned to Heathsville to help his father operate Ingram Bay Marina. Billy will share about exciting experiences he has had fishing on the rivers and bay.

3. 2:20 - Captain Bubbie Crown, "Tortuga", Deltaville, Va.
Topic: Where and When to Fish

Captain Bubbie Crown, a Deltaville boat builder, has had his U.S. Coast Guard Master's license for 10 years and has enjoyed fishing the Rappahannock and Chesapeake Bay since childhood. His 57' Chesapeake Bay Dead Rise "Tortuga" was built in Deltaville for service as a head boat in Virginia Beach. Now she is 'back home' in Deltaville for fishing and sightseeing charters. Bubbie is who all the locals call for 'where the fish are biting'. He will share some of his secrets.

EACH SPEAKER WILL ALLOW 10-15 MINUTES FOR QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS FOLLOWING THEIR TOPIC, SO SPEAK UP AND ASK THOSE FISHING QUESTIONS.

4. 1:00 PM

Topic: "Let's Avoid a Collision! A Review of the Steering & Sailing Rules for Sail & Power Vessels"

Speaker: Bill Simpson, Owner of Stingray Point ASA Sailing School, located at Deltaville Yachting Center

Bill Simpson is the owner of Stingray Point Sailing School, which is American Sailing Association Certified. Stingray Point Sailing School was awarded "ASA School of the Year for 2012" & Bill Simpson was also awarded "ASA Instructor of the Year for 2012". Bill's love of sailing is evident as he helps newcomers as well as sailors seeking higher level ASA certifications. He & his wife, Cheryl, sail their personal boat and enjoy sailing charters every chance they get. "Bean Dip", the SPSS school boat, & the SPSS classrooms are located at Deltaville Yachting Center. Bill & the other instructors of SPSS offer classroom as well as 'on the water' sailing classes from 'intro level' to 'advanced'. Visit www.stingraysail.com to check out class schedules and/or to join the email list for SPSS Newsletter, or contact Bill Simpson at bill@stingraysail.com.

Wintertime Boat Service Projects

Deltaville Yachting Center's ABYC marine service technicians are extremely busy this winter with some interesting boat refit/refurb projects. Quality and value are carefully balanced with assurance of completion to the customers' specifications.

Major refit to include engine, generator, air conditioning, water maker and cabinetry.

Fuel tank replacement and mechanical systems update.

Rejuvenation of 1959 wooden boat to include new decking, varnishing, new paint and new transom.

Connect with us on Facebook

Wonderful Christmas Time Off

Thank you for your understanding of our need for the annual holiday break during Christmas and New Year's Eve. All of the DYC staff took time to be with family and friends, some traveling as far as New England. It was refreshing 'down time' and we all returned on January 2nd, ready to help with your boating needs.

The DYC Crew says thank you for all the lovely cards, gifts and notes – Lew & Onna Grimm, DYC & CYS Owners/Managers

ABYC Display Baltimore Boat Show

Lew Grimm at ABYC Booth

Deltaville Yachting Center employs ABYC Marine Technicians and complies with ABYC marine standards in all service work and rebuilds. Sailors, cruisers and fishermen should understand what the ABYC standards mean and how these standards benefit your boating experience.

The Baltimore Boat Show will be Thursday, January 23 through Sunday, January 26 at the Baltimore Convention Center, 1 W Pratt Street, Baltimore, MD 21201. In booth #302 American Boat and Yacht Council will be educating boaters about BOATING SAFETY...BUILT IN. Lew Grimm helped by answering boaters' questions at the ABYC booth on Saturday, January 25th.

Deltaville Dealer Days Boat Show
